June Meeting

Program

Larry Vickers presented a program on fine tuning our detecting skills. We had time for Q & A and members shared detecting tips. Susie Mireles gave an inspiring testimonial of her experiences participating with the children at the Lion's Camp in Kerrville. She made a very creative tri-fold display to share with pictures of the camp and some of the smiling children.

Display Contest

This month we had a DISPLAY contest in lieu of our monthly "Find of the Month" competition. Six members entered displays and we enjoyed viewing and voting on our favorite. The winner's were: First place – Blaine Nelson, Second Place – Rudy Nordmeyer, Third place – Scott Hegel. Honorable mention went to Daniel Mireles, Dennis Gans and Frank Vick.

Club Tee Shirts

We agreed to pursue finding a source to order club tee shirts. We discussed possible colors and logos. Blaine will follow-up and report back.

Refreshments

Thanks to Betty Vickers for bringing refreshments. Jim Lawhon will bring refreshments in July.

June Activities

Kerrville Lion's Camp

Club Hunt

We had a "Member Only" club hunt at the Travis Co. Expo Center on Sunday, June 22. The hunt followed the huge biker rally that drew thousands of people earlier that week. Everyone had a good time and found numerous coins and other items around the grounds.

Monday Morning Hunt

On Monday June 30th six club members met at the Travis Co. Expo Center to try more detecting after the biker rally. We continued to find a number of coins, old bullet shells and a $5.00 bill was spotted in a ditch.

Lost and Found

Another success for the Search and Recovery Team! Jim Lawhon went out on a request that came in through our web site for assistance in locating a lost ring. The ring was lost in a back yard and was found within 5 minutes after Jim arrived. Congratulations Jim, and thanks for your service!

by Susie Mireles

To quote Janice Joplin, “Take another little piece of my heart...” I have to agree with this, as I left part of my heart in Kerrville at the Texas Lions Camp. About a dozen of us gathered under the equestrian arena, with our host Keith Wills’ on June 18 & 19th for the 12th annual trip to TLC. There were representatives from the Fort Worth, San Antonio, Houston and Austin area clubs. We had five members from Austin club.

After the tables and displays were in place and the first round of coins buried, we anxiously awaited the first of several groups of kids and counselors to appear. We were fortunate this year to have new Garrett Ace 150 Metal Detectors to use. They were donated by Garrett and Keith had them ready for us. One of the detectors had been modified with a light to allow deaf children to participate without problem! I mention the detector with the light since it is the main reason I lost part of my heart that day!

Our first group of about 20 kids and counselors appears in the arena, excited and eager, to hunt! Keith gives them a little orientation about what we are going to do and points out the displays. We are as excited as the kids and we wait on the sidelines like in school, waiting to be chosen for a kickball team! We whisper amongst ourselves, “wonder who I will be with?!” After the introductions are done, we are paired up with kids and counselors.

I noticed during the introduction that one of the boys has a counselor that is interpreting sign language, so I grabbed the Ace 150 with the light, asked Larry Vickers to “make it work for me” and made sure Keith knew I had it! (a side note; even though my husband, Daniel, has been detecting for about 10 years, I am new to this and not as confident about my new found skill, so Larry or Keith always make sure my detector is set correctly). As I hoped, I was paired up with the little boy I described. He was about 8 or 9 years old. I asked the counselor what his name was and he spelled, in sign language, J-O-S-H-U-A. I was able to keep up with his spelling and he was pleased that I understood. I was able to use my, not so great, sign language letters skills and tell him my name was S-U-S-I-E. He smiled and was ready to try this fine sport. He told the counselor that he didn’t think he could do this because he was deaf. As the messages were relayed back and forth between us, I showed Joshua that there was a light that would light up when he was over a coin! He was then very excited (the newest sign I learned, just ask me and I can show you that one) and off we went. He found one coin, then another and another and by the end of his session, he had about a dozen coins in his bag! He had his photo made with me, thanked me and went on his way to lunch! As he was leaving he was still, very excitedly, sharing views of the contents of his “bag o’ treasure” with the counselors! Now, you might think this is where the story ends and my heart has been tagged, but there is one more part.

We always are invited to eat in the lunchroom with the kids and for the most part, our group all takes them up on their offer! It’s not so much the great chicken fingers, burritos or even the salad bar, including a peanut butter and jelly bar, that are so inviting. It’s not even the air conditioning or indoor restrooms, even though those are all nice enticements. But rather, it's the camaraderie of our group and enjoying the lively activities just like we were part of the campers! We go through the lines and gather our trays, utensils and find a table to enjoy our meal, and head back for our drinks. Daniel and I headed to the lemonade and above the normally loud roar in the lunch room, I hear a squeal and look up just in time to be grabbed and hugged by none other than the famous JOSHUA!! Daniel and the counselors watched as we shared an exciting moment! At that very moment, I had giant tears of joy in my eyes and truly lost a piece of my heart. He saw me again the next day and waved excitedly.

I also recognized my favorite "heart piece" from last year, Wyatt, and visited with him for a few minutes! He was very pleased that I remembered him spoke to him. He is blind and was equally excited last year and he learned he too could participate in our hobby! During the "quiet time" after lunch, Daniel and I rode around and enjoyed the beautiful scenery of the 504 acres that make up Texas Lions Camp, we also had a couple of games of ladder ball in the arena. I believe we had about 100 kids in the 2 days there and Steve Mabry, the director of the camp, mentioned that this was the largest group they had hosted so far with over 140 kids in attendance that week. All in all, it was another rewarding, exciting, and exhausting year at camp! I can't wait until next year. If you want to have a great time too, please think about putting this activity on your calendar next year and join us! Thank you Keith for making this possible!
